Core Clinics

Every UCI Law student is required to participate in one of these core clinics:

Appellate Litigation
Community & Economic Development
Criminal Justice
Domestic Violence
Environmental Law
Immigrant Rights
Intellectual Property, Arts, and Technology
International Justice

Elective Clinics

Civil Rights Litigation
Department of Fair Employment and Housing
International Human Rights
Reproductive Rights
Veterans

New Criminal Justice Clinic

Students in the Criminal Justice Clinic represent low-income individuals charged with misdemeanors in state criminal court. In addition, students work on broader criminal justice reform projects and other related matters, considering issues of local and national importance, including race and policing, mass incarceration and the challenges of reentry into society.
