

.....

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

.....

University of
California, Irvine
School of Law

Get Connected.

The University of California, Irvine School of Law is a vibrant intellectual community in a collegial, supportive and friendly environment. Each week there are speakers and events for students on a wide array of topics. Our student organizations are central to student life at the Law School, holding activities throughout the year.

“The Law School encourages you to get involved by joining, or starting, a student organization. We will help facilitate that in every way possible.”

Liz Schroeder, Assistant Dean for Student Services

Student Organizations

Adelphi Christian Fellowship
Alternative Dispute Resolution Society
American Constitution Society
Asian Pacific American Law Student Association
Barley Legal
Biotechnology and Global Health Policy Club
Black Law Student Association
Business Law Society
Children's Advocacy Group
Criminal Law Society
Employment and Labor Law Society
Entertainment and Sports Law Society
Environmental Law Society
Global Justice Summit
If/When/How: Lawyering for Reproductive Justice
In Vino Veritas
Intellectual Property and Cyberlaw Society
International Law Society
International Refugee Assistance Project
Jewish Law Association
Land Use and Real Estate Society
Latina/o Law Students Association
Mental Health and Wellness Association
National Lawyers Guild
Native American Student Alliance
OutLaw
Public Interest Law Fund
Student Animal Legal Defense Fund
Student Bar Association
Students for Sensible Drug Policy
Tax Law Society
The Federalist Society
Trial Advocacy Club underRepresented Student Alliance
Veterans' Advocacy Society
Women's Law Society

In the Law School Survey of Student Engagement, a significant majority of UCI Law students rated their entire educational experience as "Excellent," far exceeding peer schools and the national average.

University of
California, Irvine
School of Law

www.law.uci.edu