

M. Katherine Baird Darmer Equality Scholarship 2016 Application

The M. Katherine Baird Darmer Equality Scholarship Fund was named in memory of the late M. Katherine Baird Darmer, an activist, law professor, and champion of change for the LGBT community in Orange County and beyond. The Fund, which is sponsored by the Orange County Lavender Bar Association (OCLBA) and the Orange County Equality Coalition (OCEC), will award one or more scholarships each year to academically qualified law students who have demonstrated commitment to advancing equality for the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender community in Orange County. Determinations regarding the amount and number of awards are at the sole discretion of the scholarship committee jointly appointed by OCLBA and OCEC and the Liberty Hill Foundation.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be considered for the Darmer Equality Scholarship, an applicant must meet all of the following criteria:

- Be a current or incoming law student.
- Demonstrate commitment to advancing equality for the LGBT community in Orange County.
- Make every effort to be available for a personal interview should one be required.

GUIDELINES & INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPLICATION PACKETS

1. All applicants must submit the following to be considered (please do not submit additional materials):
 - Completed application form. You must use the attached application form (you may not re-type it or otherwise alter the form in any manner). Please answer every question. If a question does not apply to you, write "N/A".
 - Personal statement (typed, 1-2 pages, double-spaced). Please address the following topics in your statement:
 - Describe what role you have played in advancing equality for the LGBT community.
 - Discuss what motivated you to go to law school.
 - Two (2) questions and short essay answers (typed, combined 3-pages maximum).
 - Question #1: Describe the differences and similarities, as you see them, between the LGBT equality movement in Orange County and in other parts of California and the country.
 - Question #2: Describe one compelling issue facing the LGBT community today and the role that law students and attorneys should play in addressing it.

- Two (2) signed letters of recommendation, one of which must be from a college or law school professor. The authors should be familiar with your academic and/or LGBT advocacy work (no family members or friends) and the letters should be specific as to the author's knowledge of your strengths and abilities and explain why the author is recommending you for the Darmer Equality Scholarship.
 - Transcripts for all colleges and law schools attended. Photocopies of official transcripts and online print-outs of grade reports which include your GPA may be used.
 - Résumé, which details your complete work and community service history.
2. All application materials should be sent together. Incomplete submissions will not be considered.
 3. Application materials will not be returned.

Please read through all of the materials provided before contacting us with questions. Questions may be emailed to Francine Lipman at lipmanfj@yahoo.com. No phone calls please.
