

Transnational Legal Ordering of Private Law and Business Regulation

May 13-14, 2015

UC Irvine School of Law

Schedule

Wednesday, May 13

8.15: Van pick up from hotel

8.30: Breakfast and coffee at Law School

9.00-10.00: Terence Halliday and Gregory Shaffer, Introduction: The Concept of Transnational Legal Orders as applied to Private Law and Business Regulation (open discussion)

10.00-11.00: Larry Catá Backer, Trial by Fire: Rana Plaza and the Transnational Legal Order (commentator Gregory Shaffer)

11.00-11.15: Coffee

11.15-12.15: Cynthia Williams, Expanded Disclosure and Corporate Accountability: A Hopeful Critique of a Potential Transnational Legal Order (commentator Hannah Buxbaum)

12.15-1.15: Lunch

1.15-2.15: Christopher Whytock, Conflict of Laws, Private International Law, and Transnational Legal Order (commentator Robert Wai)

2.15-3.15: Robert Wai, Transnational Private Law as Transnational Legal Order (commentator Chris Whytock)

3.15-3.30: Coffee

3.30-4.30: Alexia Brunet Marks, Transnational Legal Ordering, Food Safety and New Governance (commentator Larry Catá Backer)

4.30-5.30: Hannah Buxbaum, Transnational Legal Ordering and Transactions in Securities (commentator Cynthia Williams)

Van to Hotel.

Thursday, May 14

Breakfast at hotel

8.45: Van pick up from hotel

9.00-10.00: Ralf Michaels, U.S. Law as a Transnational Legal Order (commentator Peer Zumbansen)

10.00-11.00: Peer Zumbansen, Foundations of Transnational Legal Orders: Why the Nation State Matters, and How (commentator Terence Halliday)

11.00-11.15: Coffee

11.15-12.15: Terence Halliday and Gregory Shaffer, wrap up

12.15-1.15: Lunch

Van to airport or hotel, depending on air reservations