

CONGRESSIONAL BRIEFING: Women, Girls and Mass Incarceration

SAVE THE DATE

FEATURING: Professor Michele Goodwin, Chancellor's Professor,
University of California Irvine

PANELISTS: Amy Fettig, ACLU National Prison Project
Carolyn Sufrin, MD, Johns Hopkins University
Nusrat Chourdhury, ACLU Racial Justice Program

WHERE: CAPITOL VISITORS CENTER, HVC-201 AB
WHEN: TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2016 (LUNCH PROVIDED)
TIME: 12:00PM-1:00PM

WHY: The United States incarcerates more women than any other nation in the world.
The human and financial costs are extraordinary. Most are non-violent offenders. How do we fix this problem? How does mass incarceration impact families, prisons, communities, foster care? What are the hidden costs of mass incarceration? Who pays the costs?

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT: mgoodwin@law.uci.edu or 949.824.3897 RSVP: rkadri@law.uci.edu