Taking Stock: Financial Regulation since the Crisis

Sponsored by the Law and Business Program of the Vanderbilt Law School

Friday, March 25, 2016

Thursday, March 24

7:00pm. Dinner at Giovanni’s (909 20th Ave South) with remarks by Amias Gerety, Acting Assistant Secretary, U.S. Treasury Department

Friday, March 25

7:15 to 8:10am. Breakfast, First floor, North Lobby of the Law School

8:15am. Introductory remarks

8:30 to 10:00am. Resolution (and Resolution Plans) Panel

- Mike Krimminger, Cleary Gottlieb
- Stephen Lubben, Seton Hall Law School
- Margaret Tahyar, Davis Polk & Wardwell
- Arthur Wilmarth, George Washington University Law School
- Moderator: John Crawford, UC Hastings College of Law

10:20 to 11:50am. Capital and Stress Testing Panel

- Lawrence Baxter, Duke Law School
- Henry Hu, University of Texas Law School
- Heidi Schooner, Columbus Law
- Michael Wiseman, Sullivan & Cromwell
- Moderator: Jim Cheek, Vanderbilt Law School and Bass, Berry & Sims

12:00 to 1:00pm. Luncheon at Loew’s

1:00 to 1:45pm. Keynote speaker at Loew’s: Paul Tucker, Chairman, Systemic Risk Council; previously, Deputy Governor for Financial Stability, Bank of England

2:00 to 3:30pm. Derivatives Regulation Panel

- Dan Awrey, Oxford University
- Erik Gerding, Colorado Law
• Colin Lloyd, Cleary Gottlieb
• Sayee Srinivasan, Chief Economist, CFTC
• Moderator: Yesha Yadav, Vanderbilt Law School

3:45 to 5:15pm. Money Markets (or Short-Term Wholesale Funding) Panel

• Mike Hsu, Federal Reserve Board
• Kathryn Judge, Columbia Law School
• James Sweeney, Credit Suisse
• Charles Whitehead, Cornell Law School
• Moderator: David Min, UC Irvine School of Law

7:00pm. Dinner at Watermark (507 12th Ave South) followed by music at Station Inn or elsewhere