

BEATRICE A. TICE

401 E. Peltason Dr., Suite 2000, Irvine, CA 92697 | (949) 824-7327 | btice@law.uci.edu

EDUCATION

M.L.I.S	Special Certificate in Law Librarianship <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Phi Beta Mu	University of Washington - Seattle, WA	August 2000
J.D.	with distinction <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Senior Editor, Stanford Law Review• Hilmer Oehlmann, Jr. Memorial Prize in Legal Research and Writing	Stanford Law School – Stanford, CA	June 1989
M.A.	Linguistics <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Charles P. Sherman Fellowship• Yale University Fellowship	Yale University – New Haven, CT	December 1983
B.A.	Modern European Languages <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Phi Beta Kappa, magna cum laude• William Lincoln Honnold Fellowship• Pomona College Scholar, four consecutive years	Pomona College – Claremont, CA	May 1981

LAW TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Professor of the Practice of Law University of California, Irvine School of Law – Irvine, California	July 2014-present
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Teach first-year and upper division courses, including International Legal Analysis, International Legal Analysis II, the Legal Profession, Comparative Law, and Advanced Legal Research.• Research interests include history of Scottish law, comparative criminal procedure, and study of law as information.
Adjunct Professor University of Toronto Faculty of Law – Toronto, Ontario	August 2004 – May 2008
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Regularly taught Advanced Legal Research, Analysis and Writing, a 3-credit course for J.D. students covering research in Canadian, U.S., and UK law.• Responsible for overseeing and providing all first-year legal research instruction.• Taught research workshops in areas of transnational and general legal research, as requested by faculty members.• Co-taught Research and Writing for International Students, a 2-credit course for LL.M. and exchange students (fall term 2006).• Collaborated in teaching Academic Stream Intensive Capstone (fall term 2007)• Collaborated in teaching Canadian Approaches to International Law, a 3-credit course for J.D. and LL.M. students (spring term 2005, 2006).• Regularly supervised participants in the moot court exercise, coaching two teams of four students each.

Adjunct Instructor

September 2002 – July 2004

University of Michigan Law School – Ann Arbor, Michigan

- Taught Researching Transnational Law, a 2-credit course for J.D. students, covering sources and strategies for legal research in foreign and comparative, private international, public international, and supranational law, including documents of international organizations.
- Published and maintained website for class.

LAW LIBRARY EXPERIENCE

Associate Dean, Law Library and Research Professor of Law

June 2008 – July 2014

University of California, Irvine School of Law – Irvine, California

- Served as founding director of the Law Library and founding faculty member of the Law School.
- Created Law Library from scratch, including initial collection development, hiring, and overseeing building and interior decoration of new space.
- Reporting directly to the Dean of the Law School, responsible for all aspects of directing the Law Library, including staff, programs, policies, collections, budget, and physical space.

Chief Law Librarian

August 2004 – May 2008

University of Toronto Faculty of Law – Toronto, Ontario

- Reporting directly to the Dean of the Faculty of Law, responsible for all aspects of administration of the Law Library, including public services, technical services, computer services, and collection development. Administered annual budget of over $1.9 million. Supervised a team of 5 librarians, 10 library technicians, and 15 part-time staff, in a unionized environment.
- Created and implemented programs to enhance the library services for law students and faculty, including “infoEXPRESS,” a personalized information retrieval and delivery service for faculty. Spearheaded a complete restructuring of the Law Library’s website based on a user-centered portal design.
- Oversaw all aspects of information technology services offered through the Law Library, including the wired and wireless academic computing environment, course software and other instructional technology, the Law Library webpage, licensed electronic resources, and laptop support for law students.
- Served as director of the Women’s Human Rights Resources Programme, a Law Library sponsored internet project that collects, organizes, and disseminates information on women’s human rights law (<http://www.law-lib.utoronto.ca/diana.index.htm>). Organized annual student symposium for the presentation of papers concerning women’s human rights law. Recipient of a Wright Grant to study information needs of women’s advocacy groups.
- As a member of the Faculty of Law’s senior management team, served on academic committees as appointed, including Curriculum Committee, Academic Plan Committee, and Building Project Committee.
- Served as foreign, comparative, and international law librarian, providing research and reference assistance to students and faculty and developing the collection in transnational law.
- Represented the Law Library on collaborative university-wide library committees, including the Heads of Larger Libraries Committee and the Council of Campus Libraries.

Senior Associate Law Librarian

September 2002 – July 2004

Foreign and Comparative Law

Associate Law Librarian

October 2000 – August 2002

Foreign and Comparative Law

Reference Department

2000-2004

University of Michigan Law School - Ann Arbor, Michigan

- Developed the foreign, comparative, private international law, Roman law, and religious law of the Law Library. Responsibilities included selecting new material in all formats, weeding the collections, and writing and applying selection policies. Set up approval plans for foreign jurisdictions.
- Developed bibliographic instruction sessions in law and non-law subjects for law students and members of the Law School community. Workshops taught included Transnational Legal Research, Researching the Law of the European Union, and Researching U.S. Labor Law.
- Furnished individual research consultations for law students on all topics, particularly in areas of foreign and international law.
- Provided reference service to Law Library patrons in all areas of the Law Library collection, as well as non-law areas.
- Performed research for Law School faculty members, particularly using materials published in foreign languages.

Reference Intern

September 1999 – August 2000

Marian Gould Gallagher Law Library, University of Washington – Seattle, Washington

- Worked part-time, including solo shifts, in a busy urban setting providing reference services to patrons from the law school community and the general public.

Access Services Intern

February 2000 – August 2000

Marian Gould Gallagher Law Library, University of Washington – Seattle, Washington

- Worked part-time at the circulation desk.

Technical Services Intern

September 1999 – January 2000

Marian Gould Gallagher Law Library, University of Washington – Seattle, Washington

- Worked part-time, rotating through all areas of the technical services department.

LEGAL PRACTICE EXPERIENCE

Litigation Attorney

Gray, Cary, Ware & Freidenrich – San Diego, California

1994 – 1997

Adams, Duque & Hazeltine – San Diego, California

1993 – 1994

Latham & Watkins – Costa Mesa, California

1989 – 1993

- Federal and state court practice in general business litigation, including securities fraud, accountant liability, RICO, defective product liability, housing discrimination, employment law, commercial contract disputes, and bankruptcy creditor law. Experience included client counseling, all phases of discovery, law and motion practice, settlement negotiation, summary judgment, trial preparation, jury and bench trial practice, post-trial matters, and appellate practice.

PUBLICATIONS

- The Academic Law Library in the 21st Century: Still the Heart of the Law School, UC Irvine Law Review (March 2011).
- The Osler Years (1958 – 1975): Establishing a Research Practice and Founding a Research Department, with Angela Fernandez, Looking Forward: The Contributions of Supreme Court of Canada Justice Bertha Wilson (2008, UBC Press).
- Ranganathan Meets the Charter: The Law Librarian as Women’s Information Advocate, Nexus (Spring/Summer 2006).
- Foreign Official Gazettes: Solving a Collection Conundrum, 97 Law Library Journal 299 (2005)
- A Response to Montserrat Guiberneau: Nations Without States: Political Communities in the Global Age, with Jason C. Nelson, 25 Michigan Journal of International Law 1293 (2004).
- Review, Medieval Law in Context: The Growth of Legal Consciousness from the Magna Carta to the Peasants’ Revolt, by A. Musson, 94 Law Library Journal 653 (2002).
- Gaebler, R. and Smolka-Day, M., eds. Sources of State Practice in International Law (Ardsley, N.Y. Transnational Publishers, 2001). Authored chapter on France. Updated new release, 2005. Second edition forthcoming, 2013.
- Too Many Jobs, Too Few Job Seekers? A Study of Law Librarianship Job Data Samples, 1989-1999, 93 Law Library Journal 71 (2001). Winning entry in 2000 AALL/LEXIS Law Publishing Call for Papers competition.
- Review, The Nature of the Crown: A Legal and Political Analysis, by M. Sunkin, 93 Law Library Journal 195 (2001).

PROFESSIONAL WRITING

- Report on the New Disclosure Requirements of Ontario Bill 198 with Ramandeep Grewal, Toronto Association of Law Libraries’ Newsletter, Winter 2007.
- Report on the Process of a Bill in Ontario with Rick Sage, Toronto Association of Law Libraries’ Newsletter, Fall 2006.
- An American’s Excellent Adventure in Toronto, Toronto Association of Law Libraries’ Newsletter, Fall 2005.

PRESENTATIONS

- Designing for Evolving and Changing Staff Needs, Bricks, Bytes & Continuous Renovation Conference, March 2012, Sand Diego, California.
- “Familiar, yet Somehow Strange...”: Researching Canadian Law from an American Perspective, 4th Northeast Regional Law Libraries Meeting, October 2007, Toronto, Ontario.
- Panelist, The Future of the Academic Law Library, 4th Northeast Regional Law Libraries Meeting, October 2007, Toronto, Ontario.
- Providing Law Library Services to Non-Law Patrons, Canadian Association of Law Libraries’ Annual Meeting, May 2006, Edmonton, Alberta.
- Law for the Non-J.D., American Association of Law Libraries’ Annual Meeting, July 2001, Minneapolis, Minnesota. Co-taught 2-day workshop of substantive law topics for non-attorney law librarians.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE AND AFFILIATIONS

American Association of Law Libraries	1998 – Present
Canadian Association of Law Libraries	2004 – 2009
Toronto Association of Law Libraries	2004 – 2009
• President, 2007 – 2008
• Vice – President, 2006 – 2007
• Chair, Education Committee, 2006 – 2007
• Member, Programme Planning Committee, 4 th Northeast Regional Law Libraries Meeting	2005 – 2007
International Association of Law Libraries	2002 – Present
Special Libraries Association	2004 – Present
State Bar of California	1989 – Present
Bars of the Federal District Court, Ninth Circuit, Central, and Southern Districts	1990 – Present
Bar of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals	1990 – Present
Trustee, Orange County Public Law Library	2009-2012

LANGUAGES

Able to work in all languages. Speaking and reading knowledge of French. Reading knowledge of German, Italian, Spanish, and Latin. Familiarity with Scandinavian languages, Portuguese, Russian, Welsh, Scots Gaelic, and Irish Gaelic.