

Patricia Foudy Cyr

pattycyr@yahoo.com

EDUCATION:

Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, DC

J.D cum laude, May 2000

G.P.A.: 11.6/12.0 (A) Third Year; 10.5/12.0 (B+/A-) Cumulative

Honors: Dean's List (1998 – 2000)

Best Exam, Tax Treatment of Charities and Other Non-Profits (Prof. Michael Sanders; Fall 1999)

Clinic: Family Advocacy Clinic (January – August 2000, includes three months as staff attorney)

Journal: Senior Editor, Law and Policy in International Business

Mock Trial: Best Advocate, NACDL 10th Annual Criminal Trial Competition (November 1999)

Semifinalist, NACDL Annual Criminal Trial Competition (November 1998)

Finalist, Georgetown University William Greenhalgh Trial Competition (February 1998)

Stanford University; Stanford, CA

M.A. International Comparative Education, August 1995

Georgetown University; Washington, DC

B.A. Psychology, Government Minor, May 1994

EXPERIENCE:

Admitted in: California; Washington, DC; Ninth, Second and Federal Circuits; California Northern, Central and Southern Districts.

Michael J. Eig and Associates; Chevy Chase, MD

Special Education Attorney: Appear in District Court and Administrative Hearings on behalf of families seeking to enforce the Individuals with Disabilities in Education Act; author and edit briefs, motion papers and hearing applications for Federal Courts, administrative agencies; advocate for families at school-based educational planning meetings; conduct client intake interviews; work with clients and experts to develop education and litigation strategy; manage and mentor summer associates and support staff; prepare witnesses; negotiate with opposing counsel; manage discovery process; supervise outside consultants. (October 2006 – June 2008)

Sullivan & Cromwell, LLP; Washington, D.C., Palo Alto, California

Litigation Associate: Appear in Federal and State Courts; conduct bench trials; author and edit briefs and motion papers for Federal, State and Bankruptcy Courts, administrative agencies; work with clients to develop litigation and business strategy; manage and mentor junior associates, summer associates and support staff; take and defend fact and expert depositions; prepare fact and expert witnesses; negotiate with opposing counsel; manage discovery process; coordinate document productions; supervise outside consultants; member of Microsoft trial team for remedies phase of State of New York v. Microsoft; pro bono projects include custody petition, research on parental involvement under No Child Left Behind, death penalty case, asylum application, coach of high school mock trial team. (September 2001 – June 2006)

Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals, Judge Stanley F. Birch, Jr.; Atlanta, Georgia

Judicial Clerk: Draft published and non-published appellate opinions. (September 2000 – August 2001)

Emory University Law School; Atlanta, Georgia

Mock Trial Team Coach: Coach law students competing in ATLA Mock Trial Competition. (September 2000 – March 2001)

National Collegiate Conference Association, Inc.; New York, New York

Board of Directors: Serve one year as Secretary, three years as President and one year as Advisor. (April 1996 – April 2001)

Staff – National Model United Nations: Research, write and edit briefing materials; supervise staff. (May 1992 - April 1996)

Georgetown University Law Center of the Americas Program; Washington, D.C.

Program Coordinator: Coordinate LawCasa program during Director's leave of absence. (September 1998 – December 1999)

Research Assistant: Assist Program Director with administration of LawCasa program. (September 1997 – August 1998)

Sidley & Austin; New York, New York and McCutchen, Doyle, Brown & Enersen; San Francisco, California

Litigation Summer Associate: Assist litigation department; research and draft briefs and memos. (May – August 1999)

Organization of American States, Department of Legal Services; Washington, D.C.

Legal Intern: Research U.S. legal issues for Senior Counsel of international organization. (June – September 1998)

Fondo Unido, I.A.P.; Mexico City, Mexico

Assistant National Director: Persuade corporate directors to establish United Way program in companies; present community development program in Spanish to workers; motivate groups to donate money in the community. (August 1996 - August 1997)