

Gifts to the UCI Law Fund directly impact our community:

"I plan to work in the public interest sphere and spend my career helping the underrepresented. At UCI Law, I was provided with financial support so I could serve as a summer law clerk at the Legal Services of Northern California. That experience enabled me to directly affect the lives of so many people on a daily basis, and it solidified my desire to use my legal education to help low-income communities."

Natalie Diaz '16

"My clinic client has remained with me as a constant reminder of the law's potential for justice and injustice for each individual — and as a constant reminder of why I became a lawyer."

Alisa Hartz '12, Attorney, Public Counsel
Former clinical student, UCI Law's Immigrant Rights Clinic

What impact will your gift have?

- An abuse survivor successfully navigates through the court system with the assistance of interpretation services at the Domestic Violence Clinic.
- A low-income student receives a scholarship.
- A law student assists an exploited day worker with a U-visa application.
- Law students are able to serve the public interest through stipends provided by donors.
- Students serve veterans by advocating for benefits.
- Environmental and land use pro bono projects are funded.

In your hands is the power to help make these scenarios possible.

Most people don't realize that tuition and fees account for only a portion of UC Irvine School of Law's annual budget. Gifts to the UCI Law Fund create an essential bridge between tuition revenues and the actual cost of a UCI Law education, ensuring that students have access to a first-rate education and also have the opportunity to provide pro bono services throughout the community.

In addition, the UCI Law Fund enables us to recruit the best and brightest law students, support important faculty research, and empower our students to help underserved communities through our legal clinics.

Please consider an annual, unrestricted gift to help support the dean's priorities through the UCI Law Fund!
