What: Marina Park project groundbreaking

When: 4 p.m. today

Where: Marina Park site at 18th Street and West Balboa Boulevard, Newport Beach

Details: Newport Beach Mayor Rush Hill, will be in attendance for the ceremony, along with Nancy Nygren, CEO of the Girl Scouts of Orange County. Public Workers Director Tray Wick says the demolition of the T Street hotel that was on the property since 1925 was completed in December. Construction of the marina is expected to start in mid-February, with more than $300,000 worth of dredged sand expected to be used for beach replenishment. Once the marina is completed, demolition of the current bridle path will begin, with the new structures and park expected to reach completion by spring 2016.

Gold coin investors hit a dead end

A military vet is one of hundreds waiting on shipments from the Tulving Co. in Newport.

Military veteran Dean Marzano – leery of stock and bond investments – decided in mid-October to sink $39,000 of his savings into gold. He settled on 30 ounces of American Eagle Gold coins.

Marzano, 40, is not alone. Consumers like him are looking for something other than paper, but the precious metals dealer in Santa Monica says his order is still nowhere in sight.

“‘I’m running out of options. We’re running out of paper,“ he said. “I got ahead of the shipping lady, and she said I don’t know what to tell you. Every day I put in the order and the order number who he wants to send purchases to. I don’t know what to tell you.”

Marzano, 40, is not alone. Consumers across the country have reported late- or missing shipments of coins. Albert and gold coins purchased from the Orange County precious-metal dealers clients say they have been told to thousands of dollars in investments, prompting some to take the

CURRENCY HAS LITTLE TRACTOR IN POLITICS
So far, only a handful of political candidates have taken stands on cryptocurrency. But with the idea of replacing traditional money with digital currency catching on, these candidates are beginning to think outside the box.まだ、政党の政治家たちはコインベースのフィンテック革命に反撃しています。しかし、新しい政...

How Bitcoin works An introduction to Bitcoin, an electronic cash system developed in 2009.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Bitcoin is a digital currency that is controlled by peer-to-peer networks. Bitcoin is commonly compared to money in a barter system, but it has no central bank. Bitcoin was invented by an unknown person or group using the name Satoshi Nakamoto.

Newport Beach Marina Park

Plans for the park include basketball courts, a marina for visitors and a community and sailing center:

"You can open a Bitcoin account online or through a mobile device. You can then begin to receive payment in Bitcoin, which is often referred to as trading. If you have a Bitcoin account, you can use it to pay for goods and services.

How to trade

Buy or sell Bitcoins via exchange platforms like BitStamp and Coinbase. You can also trade Bitcoins through online marketplaces like BitBay and Exchanger.

Bitcoin: New Internet money runs into old campaign concerns

"This is a big problem," said Newport Beach Mayor Mike Dourson. "We're trying to find a way to address this issue and make sure that our community is protected.

"I think the council and the staff are working hard to come up with a solution. But it's going to take some time to find a way to address this issue," Dourson said.

"We're going to continue to look at this issue and see what we can do to protect our community. But it's going to take some time to find a solution," Dourson said.
