4-Part Civil Trial Advocacy Series

Part 2: Opening Statements

Presented by OCBA Education Committee

Wednesday, Aug. 17, 2016

OCBA Headquarters, Newport Beach

The opening statement is the primary method by which trial attorneys reveal the facts and shape the jury's potential perception of those facts. Some even believe that many jurors make up their minds about the case when these statements are completed. Join Brian Easton and Juan Delgado as they share key insights from their decades of experience persuading juries.
