Nondiscrimination Policy Statement for Student-Related Matters
The University of California, in accordance with applicable Federal and State law and University policy, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, pregnancy*, disability, age, medical condition (cancer-related), ancestry, marital status, citizenship, sexual orientation, or status as a Vietnam-era veteran or special disabled veteran. The University also prohibits sexual harassment. This nondiscrimination policy covers admission, access, and treatment.

Practices Act of 1977 requires the University to provide the following information for individuals who are asked to supply personal information. The principal purpose for requesting the information on this form is to process your application for the UCI Center for Educational Partnerships Saturday Academy of Law program. University policy authorizes maintenance of this information. Furnishing all information on this form is mandatory; failure to provide such information will delay or even prevent completion of your registration. Information furnished on this form may be used by various University offices for registration and other academic-related purposes and will be transmitted to the state and federal governments if required by law. Individuals have the right to access this record as it pertains to themselves.
