

LWI One-Day Workshop
UCI Law*Beckman Center
100 Academy Way
Irvine, CA 92617
(Newport Room)Courting Controversy: Challenging Traditional Notions of What We (Should) Teach.*

8:30-9:30	Registration and Breakfast in the Dining Room
9:30-9:45	Welcome from Associate Dean of Lawyering Skills (Trilby Robinson-Dorn) and Site Chair (Rachel Croskery-Roberts)
9:45-10:15	Session 1: Bonny Tavares and Lee Carpenter, Learning by Accident, Learning by Design
10:20-10:50	Session 2: Lance Long, Research Well, Write Well, Learn Other Practice Skills: Pick Any Two
10:50-11:10	Morning Coffee Break (Palm Court 2)
11:10-11:40	Session 3: Rebekah Hanley, Next-Level Mentoring: Empowering our Student Partners
11:45-12:15	Session 4: Maureen Johnson, The Intersection of Legal and Social Rhetoric: How We Can Integrate Social Justice into Upper Division Legal Writing Courses
12:15-1:25	Lunch (Dining Room)
1:30-2:00	Session 5: Alison Mikkor, Let Me Ask You: Is There A Place for Client Interviewing in the First Semester?
2:05-2:35	Session 6: Susie Salmon, Restoring our Soul: How Restoring Explicit Instruction in Rhetoric to the Legal Writing Classroom Will Enhance Law Student and Lawyer Well-Being

- 2:40-3:10 Session 7: Deborah Weiss, Why Legal Writing is Just “Writing”: Bringing Creative Writing into the Legal Writing Classroom
- 3:10-3:40 Afternoon Networking Break (Palm Court 2)
- 3:40-4:10 Session 8: Rachel Croskery-Roberts and Trilby Robinson-Dorn: Beyond the Traditional Course: What Do New Lawyers Actually Need to Know, and Are We Meeting Their Needs?
- 4:15-4:45 Session 9: Hilary Reed and Alissa Rubin Gomez, Learning to Love Pro Bono: Bringing the Real World to the LRW Classroom
- 4:50-5:25 Session 10: Carol Mallory, Expanding our Conception of “Lawyering Skills” – Northeastern University School of Law’s Legal Skills in Social Context Program
- 6:00 Optional Dinners