

DEFINE YOUR GOALS FOR YOUR UCDC EXPERIENCE

Do you want to learn about...

- Legislation and the political lawmaking process? Examples are:
 - House or Senate personal staff or committee
 - Office of Legislative Counsel
 - Government Accountability Office
 - Congressional Research Service, etc.

- The regulatory, oversight and/or enforcement work of the executive departments, independent agencies, federally chartered corporations, or quasi-official agencies? Examples include the departments of:
 - Justice
 - State
 - Treasury
 - Agencies in executive departments like the:
 - Federal Aviation Administration
 - Food and Drug Administration
 - Independent administrative agencies such as the:
 - Securities and Exchange Commission
 - Federal Election Commission, etc.

- Influencing federal lawmaking as an advocate at a national nonprofit? Examples include:
 - American Civil Liberties Union
 - American Enterprise Institute
 - Human Rights Watch
 - Center for Strategic and International Studies, etc.

- A particular area of substantive law, regardless of where you work in the lawmaking continuum? Examples include:
 - Economic Regulation
 - National Security
 - Civil Rights and Liberties
 - Health Care
 - Education, etc.

- More traditional lawyering unique to DC? Examples include:
 - Litigating divisions of the Justice Department
 - General Counsel's office of another department
 - National public interest law firms such as:
 - NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund
 - Washington Legal Foundation
 - Public Citizen Litigation Group, etc.