

UC Irvine

School of Law

UC Irvine Law's FREE summer law school mentorship program is designed to help students from disadvantaged backgrounds to:

- Better understand the demands of law school
- Prepare for the law school application and admissions process
- Consider a legal career and give back to the community
- Look for opportunities and experiences in the legal field as undergraduates

Participation Requirements

- Full-time undergraduate student (includes community college)
- Plan to apply to law school at least one year after completion of the program
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Come from a disadvantaged background (see details on website)
- Available to attend all four Saturday sessions of POP (required; no exceptions)

Pre-Law Outreach Program

Every summer, 40 students are selected to attend four Saturday sessions at UC Irvine Law. The program provides:

- Detailed information on the law school admissions process, costs of law school, and available financial aid
- Information about careers in law from practicing lawyers in many fields
- An opportunity to take a mock LSAT exam
- A certificate for a free online LSAT Review course provided by Blueprint LSAT, Inc.

Additional information and application available at law.uci.edu/pop

If you have any questions, please email Ben Kwak at bkwak@law.uci.edu

Application Deadline: March 31, 2025

POP is sponsored by the Orange County Bar Association Charitable Fund and Blueprint LSAT, Inc.
