

ITALIAN AMERICAN LAWYERS
OF ORANGE COUNTY

National Italian American Bar Association

Men and women sharing a common heritage in a chosen profession

The Italian American Lawyers of Orange County (IALOC) takes pride in being the premier OCBA Affiliate that places equal emphasis on the importance of legal and cultural contributions Italians have made to our society and legal community. Its mission is to celebrate Italian culture, provide continuing legal education opportunities to members of the Orange County legal community, and to create fun and festive opportunities for networking among lawyers, non-lawyers, and anyone interested in good company.

IALOC is also the Orange County Chapter of the National Italian American Bar Association (NIABA). NIABA exists for the purpose of advancing the interests of the Italian-American legal community and to improve the administration of justice. In doing so, we are uniquely connected to our heralded, unparalleled cultural history.

IALOC/NIABA Law School Student Scholarship

Law students currently enrolled at Chapman University Dale E. Fowler School of Law, University of California, Irvine School of Law, Western State College of Law, and Whittier Law School are eligible to apply for the IALOC/NIABA Law School Student Scholarship. Students graduating in Spring 2017 may not apply.

To apply, please submit the form on the following page and a one-page essay answering the following:

How has your Italian American heritage influenced you to go to law school and pursue an opportunity in public interest/government?

Prizes

One law school student will be awarded a stipend of $1000 to help supplement his or her expenses while working in a public interest or government internship during Summer 2017. The winner and runner-ups will be honored at an IALOC meeting during Summer 2017.

Deadline and Submission

All law students must apply by Monday, May 1 at 5:00 p.m. Please e-mail the completed application form and essay in PDF format to Joan Mountain (seguin@chapman.edu).

Late submissions will not be considered. Winners will be notified by June 2017.
