

EXTERN WITH ORANGE COUNTY LAWYER MAGAZINE!

The official publication of the Orange County Bar Association, with over 8,000 subscribers, not including all ABA-accredited law schools in Orange County

Be part of a (remote!) team that puts out an award-winning magazine!

THE JOB:

- Candidates should have top-third grade from 1L legal writing class
- A minimum 6-month commitment
- Time: 5 hours to read the first proof around the 12th of each month; 5 hours to read the second proof around the 17th of each month
- Editing drafts of articles prior to layout and formatting them for the designer
- Once-a-year in-person meeting
- Opportunity to think of design ideas to accompany articles
- Opportunity to solicit/conceive article topics

THE BENEFITS:

- Hone Bluebooking and editing skills for your future summer or permanent job
- Learn about a variety of legal topics by reading the magazine
- Occasional opportunities to attend OCBA networking mixers or events
- A great conversation piece on your résumé for interviews
- Sneak peek at OCBA calendar/events/opportunities

Email the Editor-in-Chief, Gialisa Gaffaney, with your résumé and legal writing grade to apply: gialisa@gmail.com

Student feedback:

"I just wanted to thank you again for the opportunity to extern for OC Lawyer. This regular engagement with writing, citation, and exposure to the OC legal community has helped smooth so many of my rough edges, and I feel far more able and confident than when I started."

"So many firms asked about my externship with Orange County Lawyer magazine! It was a great opportunity to highlight my writing skills in my interviews."