Personal Statement

CELA is committed to encouraging the representation of persons of color, women, the LGBTQ community, and people with disabilities in the area of employment law who represent the rights of workers. As such, CELA has committed to providing a full or partial scholarship/grant to those persons who have traditionally been under-represented, to become familiar with the California Employment Lawyers Association and to encourage their membership and association with CELA and its activities.

Please tell the CELA Diversity Outreach Committee about yourself and why you believe you should be considered for a full or partial scholarship/grant to attend CELA's Annual Employment Law Conference. Please type the statement, double-spaced, and attach it to this Application. You may also submit a resume with your application.

I acknowledge and agree that if chosen as a scholarship winner, my resume and all or parts of my personal statement may be published for the 2016 CELA conference.
