UCI Law Center on Law, Equality and Race presents:

Crook County: Racism and Injustice in America's Largest Criminal Court

CLEAR welcomes Professor Nicole Gonzalez Van Cleve (Temple University) in a discussion of the largest criminal courthouse in the country, Chicago-Cook County. Winner of the Association of American Publishers' 2017 Prose Award, Gonzalez Van Cleve's Crook County is informed by over 10 years of work and investigation, and exposes a legal culture steeped in racial abuse, where courtroom actors live and breathe racism while simultaneously committing themselves to a colorblind ideal.
