

Tina Kim

Dr. Tina Kim is an Interim Director for Research, Epidemiology, and Quality Improvement at Los Angeles County Department of Public Health, Substance Abuse Prevention and Control program. She earned a Ph.D in Social/Cultural Psychology at the University of California, Riverside and was a postdoctoral fellow at Seoul National University, South Korea. Her work has focused on establishing substance use disorder (SUD) surveillance system in LAC, prescription drug abuse, medical marijuana, racial and ethnic disparities in substance use, abuse, prevention and treatment, SUD cost-effectiveness evaluation studies, and cultural competence. Dr. Kim is interested in translational research which focuses on the application of health science and epidemiology to public health programs, policies, and problems.