OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

United States Navy Reserve, December 2002 – December 2013 (Retired December 1, 2013)

Staff Judge Advocate, Navy Reserve U.S. Special Operations Command (Unit 108), Tampa Bay, FL, February 2013 – December 2013. Served as a Navy Reserve legal advisor for the Unified Command responsible for the management of special operations forces for the various military services around the world.

Staff Judge Advocate, Navy Reserve Naval Mine and Anti-Submarine Warfare Command (Unit 0194), San Diego, CA, December 2009-November 2012. Provided legal support, analysis, advice, and training for the Navy command, which serves as the war-fighting center of excellence for undersea warfare.

Reserve Special Assistant for Legal and Legislative Affairs, Navy Inspector General, Washington, DC, January 2007-November 2009. Conducted research and provided opinions, advice and training for the Naval Inspector General. For example, reviewed investigations of the alleged misconduct of senior officers; assisted inspection teams with legal matters during IG visits to particular areas/commands; and provided ethics and standards of conduct training for the IG and its subordinate commands.

Action Officer, Navy Reserve Judge Advocate 108 Unit, Miami, FL, August 2004 to December 2006. This Unit serves the Office of the Judge Advocate General of the Navy, Criminal Law (Policy) Division, Washington, DC. The following are examples of the types of assignments completed: reviewed and briefed, on a monthly basis, all U.S. Supreme Court and Circuit Court criminal law and procedure cases with implications for federal and military practice; provided opinions on proposed changes to the Uniform Code of Military Justice, the Manual for Courts-Martial, Rules for Court-Martial, and the Judge Advocate General Manual; wrote opinions on myriad issues including limits on questioning within military Article 32 (grand Jury) hearings due to rape shield laws, who must preside over a request for reconsideration of a denial of release from pre-trial confinement, and ambiguities in a proposed new law designed to criminalize the felony murder of an unborn child.

Staff Judge Advocate, Navy Reserve Amphibious Group TWO, Milwaukee, WI, Oct. 2002-Aug. 2004. Served as general counsel for the reserve component of the military command responsible for Amphibious operations in the Atlantic Ocean area of responsibilities. In addition to providing advice and training on operational law, law of the sea, and rules of engagement, I also performed staff duties related to advising the Commander on civil, administrative, criminal law, and government ethics issues.

United States Navy (Active Duty), May 1990 – December 2002

Admiralty Counsel, Office of the Judge Advocate General, Washington DC, June 2000-October 2002. Served as both Associate Counsel and Deputy Director (December 2000-July 2001) for the Admiralty and Maritime Law Division, the U.S. Navy office responsible for the management of worldwide admiralty issues. Also served as the Navy Party counsel for the National Transportation Safety Board investigation of the sinking of Japanese vessel Ehime Maru by a U.S. submarine, and as one of five attorneys on the Department of Defense Commission that investigated the terrorist bombing of USS COLE from October 2000 to January 2001. (Received an honorable discharge and a Reserve appointment as a Lieutenant Commander in December 2002).

Attorney-Advisor, Commander, Western Hemisphere Group, Mayport, FL, November 1997-June 2000. Served as general counsel for the U.S. Navy organization responsible for operations within the waters of the Caribbean and South America. Advised commanders on the international law implications of varied operations including counter-drug enforcement and cooperative engagement with foreign navies.

Counsel, Naval Legal Service Office, Guam, November 1995-November 1997. Served first as a prosecutor, then later as a defense counsel for multiple misdemeanor and felony criminal trials and administrative and disciplinary hearings involving military members. Also worked for the U.S. Attorney's Office on Guam as a Special Assistant U.S. Attorney for civil litigation arising under the Federal Tort Claims Act and as a staff attorney for a joint task force that provided humanitarian relief for 6,000 Kurdish asylum-seekers evacuated from Iraq and placed in the U.S. from October 1996 to May 1997.

Division Officer, USS FAIRFAX COUNTY, Little Creek, VA, May 1990-July 1992. Supervised approximately sixty men in the daily completion of their duties on an amphibious landing craft. Oversaw maintenance, repair and operation of multi-million dollar equipment and systems. Held various positions as Auxiliaries/Electrical Officer, Assistant Navigator, and Administrative Officer for the vessel.

SIGNIFICANT LITIGATION AND REGULATORY EXPERIENCE

El-Shifa Pharmaceutical Industries Co. v. United States, 55 Fed. Cl. 751 (2003), aff'd 378 F.3d 1346 (Fed. Cir. 2004), cert. denied, 125 S.Ct. 2963 (2005). Acted as lead agency counsel and participated With Department of Justice counsel on briefs for the successful defense of a $50 million civil suit stemming from U.S. missile strikes on terrorist sites in Sudan and Afghanistan.

Meagher v. United States, 170 F. Supp. 2d 960 (N.D. Cal. 2001). Acted as lead agency counsel and provided litigation support to the Department of Justice and civilian counsel for the case, which held the U.S. Navy was not liable in admiralty for injuries occurring on vessels it donated to charitable entities.

United States v. McAllister Towing and Transportation Co., Inc. (case settled after filing). Acted as lead agency investigator and counsel, and provided litigation support for an affirmative complaint alleging significant property and environmental clean-up damages for the United States. The case stems from a maritime collision in September of 2000 that resulted in a public vessel spilling 30,000 gallons of oil into Raritan Bay, New Jersey. Prior to the Department of Justice filing suit, personally coordinated the property damage and environmental claims of the Navy, the Department of Interior, the U.S. Coast Guard and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and pursued settlement on behalf of the United States.

Certifications and Exemptions Under the International Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea, 32 C.F.R. § 706.2. Acted as sole custodian and drafter for all amendments to this C.F.R. section from June 2000 to Sept. 2002. The section tracks navigation light certifications and exemptions for all U.S. naval vessels.
